Cottonwood ART FESTIVAL

2027 Student Art Contest

THE ART OF ANIMALS

Unleash your creativity and bring the amazing world of animals to life through art! Let your creativity shine and celebrate the beauty, wonder and diversity of the animal world!

Rules

- This contest is open to all students K - 8th grade who live in Richardson or attend an RISD school.
- Artists must use markers, pencils, crayons or paint to create their orginal artwork on a 12" square poster board that is being provided by Cottonwood Staff to RISD art teachers or can be picked up at any of the drop-off locations.
- A panel of judges will evaluate the artwork based on technical skill, originality and adherence to the theme.
- Winners in each grade will be contacted and posted on the Cottonwood website by March 12.
- Winning artwork will be displayed at Cottonwood Art Festival throughout the festival weekend, May 1 - May 2.
- Winners in all age categories will receive a ribbon and other prizes.
- All entries/ribbons must be picked up at the Community Events office at 2100 E. Campbell Rd, Ste 100, 75081 by May 7. Artwork not picked up by May 7 becomes the property of The City of Richardson.
